Bringing Biblical Principles of Governance

90% of pastors said what?

Greetings Friends,

What are we witnessing among evangelicals? In the past two weeks, I have seen some shocking Facebook posts from pastors regarding their willingness – or I should say their unwillingness – to stand for such basic issues as the sanctity of life in the womb.

The good news is that most evangelical pastors will stand and do stand. The tragic news is that some who call themselves evangelicals say, “We are pro-life but...” (I want to do a future newsletter on the phrase “We are pro-life, but...”.) We all know what that means. That statement is always followed by a (faulty) defense of voting for a pro-abortion candidate “because of other issues.”

God help us.

George Barna

May I have 3 minutes and 56 seconds of your time to listen to a video from George Barna in Washington, DC. Barna is quoted saying that while 90% of pastors say they believe the Bible speaks to the cultural and social issues of our day, 90% of them said they had not, or would not, speak on what the Bible says regarding those same cultural and social issues of the day. Stunning!

My advice: Make sure the pastor you are listening to and supporting speaks boldly on whatever the Bible speaks about – and that includes the so-called controversial issues of the sacredness of life in the womb and the sanctity of one man-one woman marriage.

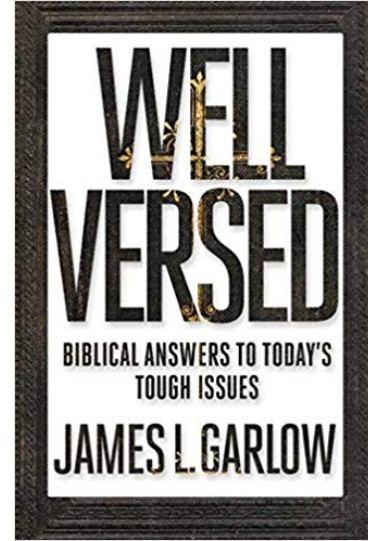

And for the record, we are not “one issue” (abortion) or “two issue” (abortion and marriage) people.

Check out my book Well Versed in which I deal with the biblical foundations of 30 governmental/political topics – including taxation, minimum wage, immigration, social security, healthcare, welfare and more. God invented civil governance. He establishes nations. We – as followers of God – care about what the Bible says about all of the present day civil governance issues.

For anyone supporting Well Versed, we have this wonderful 16 month Hebrew calendar, from September 2020 - December 2021 (our standard calendar joined with the Biblical months and events).

We want to send this Well Versed Biblical calendar to anyone who will financially partner with us. The calendar has the entire Hebrew alphabet along with the Biblical feasts, and how we can become more "well versed."

We invite you to join the prayer and financial team supporting Well Versed.

Thank you so much!
