Bringing Biblical Principles of Governance

Bevelyn Beatty:

The most fun and unpredictable person I have ever interviewed

Greetings Friends,

Have you heard of Bevelyn Beatty, the African-American woman who poured black paint over the “Black Lives Matter” mural on Fifth Avenue in New York City? The same woman who did it again in Harlem, taking on a mob. The same woman who did it in Brooklyn, again facing another mob. She was arrested and went to jail.

Did you know that she went to Chicago and preached in front of the home of Mayor Lori Lightfoot? You guessed it. She got arrested and went to jail.

Rosemary & Jim Garlow with Bevelyn Beatty holding the Well Versed book!

She is an incredible preacher. She is full of faith, full of life, full of the Spirit. She is an anointed person!

My interview with her was one of the most fun, most spontaneous I have ever done. She is remarkable. You have to meet her.

And then, forward this newsletter to all of your friends...now.
