Bringing Biblical Principles of Governance

64 years ago today!

Greetings Friends!

I want you to hear my interview with Ralph Reed. But first, I need to tell you why this day is personally significant.

Today is an anniversary. Sixty four years! Well, I admit, it is not an important day to anyone except me.

DWIGHT EISENHOWER

ADLAI STEVENSON

Sixty four years ago today – August 13, 1956, when I was age nine — I was watching the Democratic National Convention (former Illinois Governor Adlai Stevenson won the Democrat nomination for President, and in November lost to Incumbent GOP President Dwight Eisenhower) when a “governmental anointing” came upon me. Candidly, I did not know what to label it until a decade or two ago, but I remember that day, 64 years ago, as if it were yesterday.

NOT POLITICAL, BUT BIBLICAL

No, I was not “bitten by a political bug!” Not at all. My calling was much more than that. It was for biblical truth and righteousness to be brought into the governmental-political arena. “Politics” is merely about winning elections.

That is important.

But my concern is so much greater than that. My calling is to bring biblical principles of governance to government leaders...and to the people who elect them. My issues are not fundamentally “political” (although they have implications for the political realm). My issues, at their core, are “biblical!” After all, it is God who invented civil governance and God who establishes nations. In His Word, he directs how civil governance is to function.

Dr. Ralph Reed & Dr. Jim Garlow

Although I have followed the governmental arena closely since age nine, I still sometimes have trouble following the intricacies of an election. My good friend Ralph Reed is the smartest man I know when it comes to understanding the election process. I contact him often to ask him to explain to me the complexities of the polling process and the elections.

I recently interviewed Ralph Reed on our Well Versed Podcast regarding this election. Listen to his brilliant insights.

Yes, I know Ralph never ages. He has looked the same for the last 30 years. Some guys have all the good genes! And he has the brains too. You will love listening to Ralph. You will learn. Lots!

And another fun note. We had trouble finding a time to interview him. He was on his way from a meeting with the President in Atlanta when, at my request, he literally pulled to the side of the road, stepped out of his car and did the interview, in the heat, in a suit and tie!
